

AOK-K9 Client Agreement

AOK- K9's goal is to help our Pet Owners have an enjoyable time away with no worries that their beloved pets are Happy, Healthy, and Safe. While in the privacy of their own home. We recognize that boarding kennels can be a very stressful place to take our pets and we strongly believe they are much happier and healthier when they stay at home with a caretaker that administers outstanding care as well as all the love and affection your pet needs will you are away.

- AOK-K9 offers overnight stays at your own home, or daily checks.
- AOK-K9 requires a meet and greet of both pet and owner prior to any stay or daily check. At this time we will discuss what the client wishes to get out of this experience as well as AOK-K9's requirements for the care and overall needs of your pet.
- AOK-K9 reserves the right to refuse any pet she deems unsafe and/or household unsafe.
- Clients are required to leave the following with the caretaker:
  - Primary and Secondary contact.
  - Vet Office Contact and Emergency Vet Contact
  - Exact dates your pet will be under AOK-K9's care.
  - Enough food and Medications required for the duration your pet is under AOK-K9's care.
  - AOK-K9 requires any and all behavioral and/or medical problems to be disclosed with the care taker, e.g.: not housebroken, weary of strangers, dog aggressive, diabetic, seizures, etc.
  - If caretaker is staying a key and/or garage fob are required, if the home does not lock AOK-K9 cannot offer your pet overnight stays.

It is recommended that someone you trust, in the area is your secondary contact, should there ever be an issue with your pet or your home.

We also recommend that your primary vet be made aware that your pet is under AOK-K9's care should we need to bring your pet to their veterinarian.
